

Wolcott Public Library

DISPOSITION OF LIBRARY MATERIALS

The Trustees of the library have the responsibility to dispose of its property as they shall deem in the best interests of the library. In discarding used or surplus property, the Trustees shall offer to donate such materials which have no market value to a not-for-profit corporation or political subdivision in the community.

The Trustees shall offer to sell such materials which do have market value to the general public.

The Trustees shall retain any proceeds received from the sale of materials for the purpose of maintaining and improving the library.

Amended and adopted by Board of Trustees, October 26, 2006
